By now you should have received the invitation for another NON-EVENT GALA hosted by the Alachua County Library District Foundation. This non-event celebrates the 100th anniversary of the publication of book The Metamorphosis by Franz Kafka. You will remember how Gregor Samsa transformed into a giant cockroach. Thus, the warning. Our Gregor is refined, intellectual, and promotes transformation.

The Alachua County Library District Foundation's primary goal is to provide supplemental funding to ACLD, with emphasis on long-term support and planned giving, and to support specific projects as needed.

This NON-EVENT GALA will allow us to add to the Foundation's endowment goals and to contribute eventually to Snuggle Up Center and Teen Space projects in each branch library.

Join us in supporting your Library Foundation. As Franz Kafka (and Gregor) say, "Many a book is like a key to unknown chambers within the castle of one's own self."

You, too, may undergo a metamorphosis!
